

tion of General Beauregard for the position. That officer arrived at Charleston on March 3d.<sup>1</sup> On the next day Abraham Lincoln was inaugurated President of the United States. The opportunity, if there had been any, for taking Fort Sumter during Mr. Buchanan's administration, had passed away.

W. R., 25.

